

Ministry Model

Communication and media arts

Broad statement

To provide opportunities to tell the good news of the gospel and of OKC First Church of the Nazarene through written and visual arts.

2009 ministry model

- A. Provide people an opportunity to tell their stories in written form through specific seasons of the year (Advent, Lent, Thanksgiving) as well as other times (through the announcement sheet). To target more age-specific groups to tell their stories (senior and youth).

- B. Communicate effectively the “news” to OKC First Church
 - a. Continue providing the website as an informational and welcoming tool.
 - b. Work on an end-of-the-year report of the Church as a way to remember what God has done through us.
 - c. Find ways to communicate the social justice ministry area stories (literacy, CR, Penn Avenue). Continue helping Penn Ave with their newsletters.
 - d. Continue use of the announcement sheet for display news items.

- C. Visual Arts
 - a. Continue support of Amy and Jason Ayers in the Media Team ministry.
 - b. Increase electronic visual needs
 - i. Improvement of balcony capabilities
 - ii. Electronic bulletin board

- D. 100th year Celebration
 - a. Work with “book” committee to gather information for book for 2010.
 - b. Work to establish 99th anniversary in May; children’s department celebration.
 - c. Establish concept of Jubilee Year and countdown to Jubilee
 - i. Incorporate historical videos at key intervals
 - ii. Use of newsletter to inform

Other than that, try to keep working full time.
